

GERMAN GOVERNMENT FEARS REVOLT IMPENDING

OFFER STRIKING CHANGES IN SOLDIER PENSION LAWSBoard of Commissioners Recommends Several to House Pensions CommitteeDisability Permanent After Three Years—Lump Sum to Lighter Disabilities(Canadian Press Wire.)
Quins, April 16.—(By the Canadian Press.)—Several striking changes in the soldier pensions laws are recommended to the special pensions committee of Commons to-day in a statement submitted by the Board of Pensions to the committee. Consideration of the proposed amendments is now under way.

Among the important changes suggested is that pensionable disability would be considered permanent after three years had elapsed from the date of the pension, if the pension had been discontinued. The Pensions Commissioners, in their recommendations, pointed out that many disabilities, such as those resulting from the loss of a limb, would be entitled to a pension for life, and not for a period of three years, and that the amount of the pension, and medical re-examination, if continued, would continue to increase.

The above-mentioned suggested amendment was to the effect that all pensions of less than twenty per cent. disability would be discontinued if the pensioner was unable to pay his pension, unless disability or death were attributable to service.

The Commissioners recommended that the act be amended so that pensions would be awarded on the rank of the pensioner at the time of returning home, instead of at the time of discharge. The amount of money given would be effected by this decision. The amount would be increased by the amount of the pension, and the administration expenses of the pension would be materially reduced by the adoption of such a plan.

In support of this idea the Committee

submitted a table estimating the number of men in each class, and the probable average gratuity as follows:

Disability	Number	Average pensionable gratuity
5 to 9 p.c.	8,219	$160
10 to 14 p.c.	32,065	340
15 to 19 p.c.	10,548	440

Suggested amending clauses would provide that a pensioner with less than 5 per cent. disability could, at his own wish, accept as final payment a lump sum gratuity of $100, a pensioner with disability ranging from 5 to 19 per cent. would be entitled to a lump sum gratuity not to exceed $1,000. This would be a final payment of all his claims.

Amendments would also extend the provisions of the act to cover the pensioner's pensionable funds and active military. It was proposed to make the present Pensions Act applicable to the members of the Canadian Expeditionary Force, but not to pay pensions unless disability or death were attributable to service.

The Commissioners recommended that the act be amended so that pensions would be awarded on the rank of the pensioner at the time of returning home, instead of at the time of discharge. The amount of money given would be effected by this decision. The amount would be increased by the amount of the pension, and the administration expenses of the pension would be materially reduced by the adoption of such a plan.

In support of this idea the Committee

submitted a table estimating the number of men in each class, and the probable average gratuity as follows:

ALSO AN INCREASE

New Scale to Go Into Effect the First of May.

The Garment Workers of Hamilton have won one of the most signal victories of their existence, when their business agent, Mr. M. Moscovitch, secured the signatures of every employer in the city to a joint contract yesterday afternoon to conform to the closed shop. The local b.d.y., though not affiliated with the A. F. of L., is under the wing of the Amalgamated Garment Workers of America, one of the largest organizations of Americans, one of the most remarkable documents.

"You see," answered the shrewd business agent, "your union is commanding respect in the trade. They are experts in their respective lines. I am an expert in mine, and I am a business man."

The scale of wages to be paid includes a $3 advance to the girls on the first day of work, to women who have not yet learned to work, and $7 to the men who have learned to work in the garment trade. The scale will be $11.50 a week.

It is said that the credit of the executive and business agents of the Amalgamated Garment Workers, the fact that the union has been able to settle the trouble have been settled without a strike. The leaders are men in positions of responsibility and with an exact knowledge of the business which they have graduated from, and have and have accomplished at their ends and have accomplished what they have graduated from. The scale will be $11.50 a week.

There will be a mass meeting of the Amalgamated Garment Workers at 8 o'clock in the I. O. O. F. Hall to ratify the agreements entered into on the representative on their behalf.

DIED AT COPETOWN

Former Well Known Resident of Stony Creek.

Edward Lee, second son of the late Josephine Lee, passed away yesterday at the residence of his son-in-law, Clarence Howell, Copetown, at the age of 74 years. He leaves behind him a wife, Mrs. Clara Lee, and two sons, William, of Seattle and Walter, of Toronto. Mr. Lee was a well known citizen of Copetown for about eight years ago, when he moved to take up his residence with his son, Clarence, in Copetown.

Copetown up to about a year ago, he enjoyed good health, in the neighbourhood of Lee, however, he had never fully recovered, the second stroke came last night, which took him to his death.

THE NEW CITY TREASURER

The average citizen may well be puzzled to understand why there was so much joking about the appointment of a new City Treasurer. Mr. W. H. Davis, the gentleman chosen for the position, was twice recommended by the Board of Control for the office, but both times his recommendation was referred back. Last evening the recommendation that Mr. Davis be appointed was adopted by the Council by a vote which was broken by the Mayor voting for him. From the first it was opposition to Mr. Davis' appointment. On the first recommendation being presented to the Council it asked that candidate for the office be adopted. On the second recommendation following the Council interposed making the appointment by asking that the candidates be brought before the Council to state their qualifications for the position.

Mr. McMillan, the other candidate voted on, is an employee of the local Hydro Commission, and was well recommended for the office, but he was not so well known to the citizens as Mr. Davis. Mr. McMillan, the other candidate, who did not appear at the Council meeting, and who is said to be a returned soldier, received very little attention during the contest, he seemed to have few if any friends among the adherents.

Either of the three men would no doubt have filled the position with satisfaction to the citizens, but we believe that the council's action in voting when it appointed Mr. Davis, he is an old employee of the city, is reliable, well known, a capable and reliable man, who will discharge the duties of the office efficiently.

THE REFERENDUM RESOLUTION

It is likely that the opposition of the Labor members of the House to the liquor referendum resolution impelled Mr. Drury to allow a private member to introduce the matter in the Legislature. This succeeded to a ring of his followers had made a most painful impression on the people who supported the Government and must have weakened it in the eyes of many of the farmers, who voted almost unanimously, for prohibition. Mr. Drury had led the people to believe that his Government would do everything that could be done to assist the government and make the province "bone dry," and yet he failed down upon the first opportunity that presented itself for carrying out his promise. If he believed that the province was not yet ready to have any other referendum, he could have waited a little longer, but he had led for making the measure more restrictive, but he sat silent, and allowed the mover of the resolution to flounder along without his help.

The tumultuous conduct of the Premier led the Labor members of the House to believe that the Government is prepared to do what it was promised to do, or if it will succumb to the desire of the Labor men for stronger beer and wine. As the Act now stands, any Labor man can get all the strong beer or liquor he wants to have, and get it from those who are householders. But that, seemingly, is not sufficient for some of the Labor men who want stronger beer and wine sold over the bar. They tell us that they do not want the bar back, but their agitation led to the making of a law which gives them what they want, to be sold over the bar, it must have a "kick" in it, we suppose. That means it must be intoxicating. Do the people want that?

The Dominions are being committed once again by international negotiations, which they take no part in. The Royal Table, which they want to be the choice between repudiating their membership in the British Commonwealth and accepting the consequences of action taken single-handed by the British Government. To ignore this dilemma is to walk blindfold towards a precipice.

to the British Government, starting on this phase of the question, the Round Table says:

J. highly requested reservations to be made by the Senate to demonstrate the illogical character of this arrangement. The American reservation to the League of Nations is in many respects precisely similar to those with which the British Dominions stand. Their reservations, for instance, have always been a powerful imperial organization for defence which centralizes control of naval and military forces of the frontier of many foreign states, and has met with such general favor.

The Hon. Robert Rogers wants a Tory convention held in Toronto in the month of May. Robert has no use for the Liberal Government, and he wants the Tories to again function as a separate entity. He also wants the party to swear once more by the National Policy.

We are informed that the Union Government will make a definite proposal to sign the Treaty before the end of the present year.

We say again to the Tory leaders:

The Boddicker and Stationer, of Toronto, says that school books are now sold at such high prices that it actually costs to produce them. The Government supplies the rest of the money. That was the plan adopted by the late Premier Whitmer to feed the people regarding cheap school books.

The only fault we have to find with the distribution of the $20,000 given for park improvements is that nothing is to be done for the Mountain Park, on the top of the hill. The city has a large park on the hill, which little attention is given to it, although it is used for picnics, etc., in the summer season.

There is no shelter there from the rain, and very little conveniences of any kind. There is no electric light and the bridge over the culvert has broken down. Surely the city will see to it that something is done with this park.

The New York Legislature has unanimously adopted a resolution denying the privileges of the floor for the rest of the session to Senator Thompson and requiring the Senate to expunge from the records of that body the remarks of Senator Thompson as to their conduct in the night and morning of March 21 and April 1, when five thousand assemblies were organized.

Some of the members denounced this Niagara member as an "infamous Har," a "rat" and a "kuk."

It will be noticed that the outlaw strike has thrown a lot of Hamilton workingmen out of work.

Men who run down and kill people in the streets should be tried for murder or manslaughter. The people should insist upon this.

VERY SUDDEN DEATH

Mrs. Hannan Was On Way to See Her Daughter.

Death came with terrible suddenness to one of Hamilton's most highly respected citizens, in the person of Mrs. Hannan Hannon, the widow wife of Ernest Hannon, who was in his 60th year, and was in her usual health when she suddenly became ill, and with her husband to visit her daughter, who is in the hospital recovering from a very serious operation. She had been walking on the street, and had passed away in a few minutes, although everything was done for her in the way of medical aid. She leaves a husband, one daughter, Gerrie Anderson, of Bartonsville, and two sons, William L. of Burlington, and James, of Hamilton. The funeral will take place from her late residence, 75 Vista street, Saturday afternoon, at 1 o'clock, to Trinity Church Cemetery.

PLACED ON FARMS

Soldier Settlement in Getting Results.

That the Soldier's Settlement Act has proved successful and will carry on indefinitely is the assertion of a representative of that board. It has started and stopped no less than 23 farms for ex-service men, starting farms through the aid of the Government, the first of which is that of being in Wentworth County. No less than forty ex-service men are now engaged on farms, and the results of producing satisfactory results to the extent that in the majority of cases they will wipe out their debts within the next seven or eight years. All soldier settlers will be granted a special loan on their farms, feed and seed, and in spring because of the prevailing shortage and high prices.

TEAMSTERS' PAY

Coal Drivers Want Pay for All Lost Time.

The terms which were presented to the striking leaders of Guy-Gill Co. by the company offering their Saturday half-day and increase had not been accepted by the men. On Saturday morning, the men were to have met again last night. It was expected they would be prepared to continue their strike, but a strike was not arranged at noon to-day, indicated that the decision of the men last night was to return to work. A demand for a winter clause which was dealt with by the company refusing to pay when the men returned to work was the chief objection. They also refuse the Saturday half day. They state they want $2.50 for their half day, and the half day only. This reply was submitted to the dealers about noon. No new development has been reported.

PRIVATE SCREENING

Doctors and Educationists to See End of Road.

The Canadian National Council for Personal Hygiene is to have a special exhibition of the social hygiene photoplay, "The End of the Road," starring Clark Adams and John Barrymore, which will be seen at the Temple theatre next week. No preview under strict orders of the Automobile Show, to which doctors and educationists interested in social hygiene are invited to attend, will take place at the Temple at 10:30 on Saturday morning. The End of the Road is plain spoken but not indecent, and it will do much to bring matters concerning what is perhaps Canada's most vicious picture to the general people in the proper light.

THE TREASURERSHIP

Friends Urging Mr. Davis to Appear To-night.

It is doubtful if the question of appointing a city treasurer to succeed Mr. Leslie will be decided by the time of the meeting of the City Council to-night, unless it so happens that Council, after hearing the various applications, will leave the decision of the Board of Control an opportunity to bring in a resolution, and then sit up and do what they wanted.

The resolution which Council adopted on Tuesday night provided for the recommendation of the Board of Control to the Board of Control in the matter until after Council hears the applicants. It is very improbable that after the applicants have been heard, the Board of Control will be passed for a brief adjournment so that the Board of Control can retire and draw a resolution.

But what will this resolution do? It will not apply for the position. Members of the council considered him the best man available, and went about him to get him to accept. He has told the council, but his friends are urging him to do so. His World War record is excellent, and he would be a good man to represent the city.

HIS OWN VIEWS

I. L. P. Neutral On The Temperature Question.

George Halcrow, M.P.P., is voicing his sentiments on the liquor question in the House, does so entirely on his instructions, and not on the instructions of the Liberal or the Labour Party. It was stated this morning by Mr. Halcrow that the party "is not averse to the sale of beer." "We are a little more in the interest of temperance," stated H. J. Halcrow this morning, referring to the party. "We are not averse to the sale of beer, but we are not in the interest of temperance." He is the only elected representative to the House, by whatever party, there to voice his sentiments or the sentiments of the constituency he represents.

PRODUCERS FIGHT

But Milk Prices Are Coming Down Already.

At a lively meeting of 12 retailers and the producers of milk, yesterday afternoon, the producers agreed to cut prices no less than 23 cents for ex-service men, starting farms through the aid of the Government, the first of which is that of being in Wentworth County. No less than forty ex-service men are now engaged on farms, and the results of producing satisfactory results to the extent that in the majority of cases they will wipe out their debts within the next seven or eight years. NOT KNOWN HERE

Police Say Heck Was Not Arrested Here.

In connection with the mysterious disappearance of James Brooks, a former employee of the Grand Trunk Railway, in Montreal, who failed to return from a vacation trip to the Laurentians last fall, Paul Heck, a fourteen year old boy, who said he had been to Montreal, and taken to Montreal, where he is reported to have made a full confession, said that he had been arrested in this city a few weeks ago. Inspector George H. Dwyer, of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, stated this morning that nothing was known locally as to the boy's whereabouts. The boy, he said, had been arrested in the city. A statement of the crime appears in another section of this paper.

Friends of the applicants who appeared to the Board of Control and Dr. J. W. Davis, and J. J. Jutes, will no longer support him. Dr. J. W. Davis, former Mayor of Barrie, Dr. A. H. Atchison and O. H. Will likely support William Macmillan, and Dr. J. W. Davis and Macmillan appear before the council, the mayors will have to make a case for the applicants. THAT PAUPER FROM AMERICA

"I dare say," said Leonora, speaking rather indistinctly, because she had two pins in her mouth and was fastening a clean linen collar around her neck.

"How could she takes things? I suppose that is the American way," thought Mrs. West.

"She is a pauper, of course she can have no idea what a brave girl is to see the English nobility in the grandest of houses."

"She will be quite dazzled by the black coats and shining jewels and beautiful dresses. If it doesn't suppose they have a good time, I don't know what has mused the good woman, whose ideas of America were so vague that she did not even know where the country was from the condition in which Columbus discovered it."

"I should not think," said her niece, breaking out upon these silent accusations, "that Lady Lancaster, being as old—one foot in the grave and the other in the grave—had any time to care about all that my company around her. Does she lead such a life always?"

"Oh, no! It is only now that she is so dissipated. But she must keep up the dignity of the Hall, you would say. She has been there all this present year. I am sure it is in honor of his return."

"Howard Lancaster has been abroad," said Leonora, asked, curiously.

"Why, my love, what a strange question! said her aunt, staring.

"What is it? I have no idea about it," Aunt West," asked the girl.

"I, Aunt West? Why, what should I know of Lady Lancaster's husband?"

"Exclaimed Leonora, wondering if her aunt's brains were not just a little turned.

"Why, my dear girl, said my son, thinking about his old Lord Lancaster's daughter. The old Lord Lancaster has been dead these two years. Of course I mustn't tell you."

"The old lady son?" asked Leonora, reverently.

"Her nephew, my dear. You know I told you that not now that she never had a child."

"Oh, yes. I was very curious to for-see the old lady son," said her aunt.

"She is the old lady son who has been abroad."

"Yes, or rather, the husband," Leonora repeated.

"Where has he been, aunt?" continued the girl, curiously.

"Mrs. West looked as if she thought Leonora had partied with her.

"Yes, I have been to America, of course. Didn't he fetch us to England, Leonora?"

"And hasn't he but just come back making fun of your old aunt, dearest?"

"Leonora stood still, looking at her relative with a pale, startled face.

"Why, this was Captain Lancaster," she said, faintly, at last.

"Of course," said Mrs. West. "He's an officer in the army, but he is Lord Lancaster, of Lancaster Park, too."

"Does he have a son?" Leonora really knew that much, Leonora."

"No, I didn't. I thought he was nothing but a son, but he has told me that he was poor as a church-mouse," faltered Leonora, as red as a rose and with a tremor in her throat. She was just on the point of breaking down and crying with vexation.

"So he has no child, that he is?"

"Yes, he is, but he is a pauper," Leonora, looking out to the window, said, as she took out her pocket knife and began to sharpen it.

"You must be tired, dear. Do we down and rest yourself. Do we now for a little while. Oh, I had almost forgotten—your luggage, Leonora—did you bring that?"

"Yes, there were several trunks, Leonora, answered, without turning her head.

"I will have them brought in," said Mrs. West. Then she busied herself with the girl's toilet.

"She is very tired, probably, for she did not sleep."

"She only pulled a chair to the window and lay down in her bed."

"Lady Adele has small hands together on the window sill, rested her round, dimpled chin upon them, and gazed thoughtfully out in a thoughtful far-off look in her eyes.

Meanwhile Mrs. West's mind turned to Captain Lancaster.

"She is rather strange, I'm afraid," the good woman said to her husband.

"She is a pauper, I suppose, but she has no money, she will not bear restraint well—I can see that!"

"And what will she do? She is a grown-up girl instead of a little one, as we expected?" I'm afraid I see 'yo-ahs'—And yet her beauty is still there."

"Lady Adele is as poor as you are," said the withered old woman, significantly.

"No, she is not,"

"But I thought that the Earl of Lancaster had a son."

"It was once, but he and his spendthrift sons have made ducks and drakes of the old estate," said Mrs. West.

"Lady Adele will have no portion at all. She will be compelled to marry a fortune, or she will be placed in a pauper's home."

"Lady Adele is as poor as you are," said the withered old woman, significantly.

Brantford United vs. Lab. Party.

There is a good selection of games on the soccer card for to-morrow, and some close and even strenuous games are to be expected. The Pioneers are to meet Steelers on the former's pitch, and this promises to be one of the best games of the day. The Harvesters have a good side in fact the best in the history of the club, and they put up a great game last week at the Sawyers. They are good, and the style against the Pioneers. In looking over the material of both teams the Sawyers appear to be the better, but there will be a hard battle, and the Harvesters will find the Housesides a hard nut to crack.

At the Mountain top the Westinghouse will make their first appearance in the local league against the Hospital boys. It will be remarkable that they will turn up a great fight against the Harvesters and just lost after close game. They are a very good side, and will find the Housesides a hard nut to crack, the forward line, which includes Thy Thoms and Billi Glavin, a victory for them.

At Chapple Park the War Tops make their appearance against Sawyers. The Sawyers are the best side in the league this last session, having lost all their best men, but it is a question if they will even defeat their opponents who have a strong side.

The T. L. P. have arranged to go to Brantford to meet the United. They are to play the exhibition game, also a chance for the Party to try out a couple of new players. They, however, ought to be strong, and will find the team who are not in the same class as the party. A good line is promised so all players are asked to take in the trip.

All the junior teams will be in action. Crescents and Stars will meet and the Stars are to be the better. They should pull through unless the Crescents are superior to last season. Victoria and Housesides are to play, and the Crescents are to be the stronger. Crescents meet the Stars and should come through in easy style. The junior team is to play on the grass on the card. Crescents meet the Housesides and ought to pull through.

STOCK MARKET
AND MONEY RATELatter Has More Influence Than Rail Strike.Speculative Element is Bearish.(Supplied by J. G. Beatty & Co. 17
Main street east, members New York Stock Exchange)New York, April 16.—The market is more under the influence of money rates than the rail strike. It perhaps is somewhat "mixed off" from rail strike rates, "mixed off" from 15 to 12 per cent, but that may reflect rather the demand than hopefulness of the market.A definite collapse of the rail strike could bring a sharp uplift, but until money rates are more settled the market is likely to be largely in and out of affair.There has been a substantial amount of profit-taking in the market so far, but there would appear to be a purchase on setbacks.Speculative element bearing in stock markets is strong, closer everyday has much to say about what are considered unfavorable factors. The letter included call money rates and new money securities, as well as stock dividends. They assert stock dividends will make up of stock so little and extend the market time to a point of offering.Some conservers believe opening of navigation and movement of goods from the lakes will require of course a substantial amount of funds that have for a long time been kept in the east. It is said leading western funds have already withdrawn funds from New York.General Motors reports for year ended Dec. 31st last that the company had $100,000,000 stock equity to $26.36 a share on $152,000,000 outstanding that date. New sales for 1919 amounted to $509,000,000, net earnings $55,500, last, $78,641,808, from $54,609,303 on

SATISFIED NO FRAUD INTENDED

Toronto Party Had An experience Here.

Joseph Jenkins Got What He Was Looking For.

Five young men and three girls, from Toronto, appeared in police court this morning, facing charges of having obtained meals by false pretences, at the Roamore Cafe. The accused were: Fred Smith, Edward Roach, Harry Collins, Harry McCormick, William Symons, Mabel Mack, Velma Long and Alma Carson.

A waiter at the cafe, the party went to the restaurant at about 2 o'clock this morning and had meals. The bill came to $2.35 on three checks. Only two of the checks, for $2.25, were paid.

All of them denied refusing to pay, and the case was dismissed, the magistrate adjudging that no fraud was committed.

Having dirty marks on their cars, George Stout, 131 King street west, and Stanley Kerr, 132 Dundurn street, were fined $2.

James Whittle, 37 Madison avenue, and Elie Lubch, 158 King street north, each fined $2 for having no rear lights on their autos.

"I was walking down the street, when I saw a man. I knew he was looking for trouble, so I kept on going. He came after me and his car on the right. I was running, getting a clear way of assault against Joseph Jenkins, 315 Hilda street.

"Well, he was looking for trouble, all right, and I paid the $2," replied the magistrate.

Jenkins pleaded guilty.

John Lewis was complained against Nick Polocic, 76 Murray street west, "for face the magistrate and say he was not guilty of an assault at all," interjected the magistrate and dismissed the case.

George T. Smith, 125 King street west, was fined $2 for discharging a rifle inside the city limits. The defendant pleaded guilty, but said that it was a blank cartridge which he had fired off.

Driving his auto on the wrong side of the street, Mr. J. C. Conroy, 175 Huguenot street north, a two-spot, Luther Redock, 18 Gibson avenue, also donated $2 for the same offence.

DO WE LIVE ON EARTH AGAIN?

F. A. Belcher, a noted lecturer on psychological subjects, will arrive in Hamilton to-morrow and give two lectures at the Auditorium, 125 King Street and Walnut streets, Saturday, at 1 p.m. Subject, "Reincarnation," and Sunday, at 11 a.m., "The Mind." These questions are often asked: Why are some men born with the faculty of mind reading? Why are some born with a sense of conscience and why is not the conscience of all men the same? Why are some children born deaf and others not? Why are some crippled and others strong, bright and good? These big, deep, vital questions Mr. Belcher undertakes to answer. All welcome.
